

acres the universe.

forget green acres. it's all about the 80 acres verde body balm.
designed by local mcevoy ranch,
this marriage of olive and jojoba oils, beeswax and vitamin E is the best vineyard wedding you've attended all summer.
these rich botanical ingreds keep you moisturized after a long afternoon of sipping and swimming.
they absorb well, too, so no greasy residue.
happily ever after, indeed.
